Solicitation Section (when cited by contractor)	Question(s)	Answer(s)
M	Please provide a definition of each of the proposal ratings (i.e., unacceptable, marginal, satisfactory, very good and excellent) – Reference Section M.	The Government's evaluation factors and selection criteria are described in Section M of the RFP. The Government is not required to disclose its rating method in the solicitation (see FAR 15.304(d)), thus specific definitions for adjectival ratings will not be provided.
C.1.B	As you are aware, Change Notice No. 20-05, "Policy and Requirements Handbook (PRH) Changes to Health and Wellness Staffing (Exhibits 5-3 and 5-6)" was issued on April 16, 2021. The notice states the effective date of the PRH change of the notice as of June 15, 2021. With respect to the Edison JCC RFP, does the government expect contractors to include the change notice in the procurement?	Yes, an offeror's proposal should include the PRH Change Notice No. 20-05, issued April 16, 2021.
H.8	Section H.8 Wage Comparability includes the contractor's responsibility to be familiar with the local labor market. However, in the prior procurement and current contract the government determined the local labor market wages and set the minimum annual wages for the following positions: Academic Supervisor ($95,544)  Academic Teacher ($79,620)  Career Technical Education Teacher ($76,288)  Counseling Supervisor ($77,580)  Senior Counselor ($71,115)  Counselor (64,650)  Senior Residential Counselor (71,115)  Residential Counselor ($64,650)  Senior Security Officer ($50,976)  Security Guard ($45,312). Is the government still considering these wages as the minimum local area labor market wages for these positions? If not, will the government accept a pay reduction for most of these positions?	Offerors are required to comply with Section H.8 as it is stated in this Solicitation, 1605JE-22-R-00001. Versions in previous Solicitations or Contract are not applicable to this requirement. It is the operator's responsibility to be familiar with the local labor market and the wages and benefits in the area.

C.2.D	Please verify the trades and eTAR codes listed in table on page 11. The eTAR codes for the two IT trades appear to be advanced training. Are both IT trades offered at Edison as advanced training or is one basic and one advanced?	The two Information Technology Trade TARs are for Advanced Training ( A+ and MCSA).
C.2.D	RFP indicates the center must offer 15 slots for Microsoft MCSA – Windows 7/8 (CTECH-520-OJC-14). However, the Microsoft MCSA- Windows 7/9 eTAR has been eliminated and subsumed into the CompTIA A+ Technician (CTECH-510-OJC-14 15). The RFP indicates 15 slots for CompTIA A+ Technician. Please clarify: Will the program offered be CompTIA A+ Technician and will it be for 30 total slots?	The slot information listed for each trade in the RFP is correct.
Attachment J-12	Since there are 2 versions of Attachment J-12, will the government please verify that the most accurate information for utilities is found in “J-12 Edison UTILITY USAGE” which puts the annual utilities cost around $1.2 million?	The annual utility costs of approximately $1.2 million is correct.
Attachment J-22	Does the DOL plan to reduce the fleet size for the center? Are there plans to replace or dispose of any vehicles listed?	There are no plans to reduce fleet at this time.
C	The June 2021 CTT-10 report does not include the CompTIA A+ trade for the Edison Center. Please verify that the CompTIA A+ is a stand-alone trade at the Edison Center.	The CTT-10 Report as of June 2021, listed the CompTIA A+ as (Adv A+ MCSE Advanced CTT). Yes, CompTIA A+ is a stand alone AT trade.
C.2.D	The RFP indicates that the CompTIA A+ trade has 15 training slots. Please verify if the 15 training slots represent 15 full-time students or if the traditional PRH slot definition applies to this trade (one full-time student is equivalent to two training slots).	Total slots for both IT trades are 30 students / each 15 students. 15:1 ratio, per instructor ( CompTIA A+)
C.2.D	The RFP indicates that the Microsoft MCSA – Windows 7/8 trade has 15 training slots. Please verify if the 15 training slots represent 15 full-time students or if the traditional PRH slot definition applies to this trade (one full-time student is equivalent to two training slots).	Total slots for both IT trades are 30 students/ each 15 students. 15-1 student/instructor ratio ( MCSA ).
